

I. GENERAL OBLIGATIONS:

The licensee shall:

1. Comply with applicable laws, guidelines, and regulations;
2. Maintain all technical, financial and accounting records and submit quarterly & annually reports to RURA combining administrative, financial and technical issues of the business progress. RURA reserves the rights to request any report at any given time when deemed necessary
3. Comply with all monitoring, inspection and reporting requirements imposed by RURA;
4. Provide requested information during inspections. This license must be presented to the staff in charge of control and inspection when demanded;
5. Not abandon, change or extend activities authorized under this license without prior approval of RURA.

II. SPECIFIC OBLIGATIONS:

- Sign an agreement with each one of your retailers;
- Only distribute LPG in cylinders that conform to RS 135-4;
- Maintain a record of all LPG cylinders purchased and sold along with other brand's cylinders and submit that record quarterly to RURA;
- Provide to RURA, quarterly, copies of signed agreements for supply with suppliers;
- Ensure that your retailers comply with the provisions of these regulations;
- Ensure that you comply with the LPG prices once published by RURA;
- Issue to customers a receipt containing information stipulated in the article 57 of these regulations;
- Provide conditions at workplace that promote health and safety standards;
- Take appropriate measures to avoid or minimize risks by employing a structured program of risk management;
- Comply with any other obligations set by the Regulatory Authority.

N.B: This license is for 5 years renewable.