

I. GENERAL OBLIGATIONS:

The licensee shall:

1. Comply with applicable laws, guidelines, and regulations;
2. Maintain all technical, financial and accounting records and submit quarterly & annually reports to RURA combining administrative, financial and technical issues of the business progress. RURA reserves the rights to request any report at any given time when necessary;
3. Comply with all monitoring, inspection and reporting requirements set out by RURA;
4. Not abandon, change or extend activities authorized under this license without prior approval of RURA.

II. SPECIFIC OBLIGATIONS:

-Submit to RURA the following information before the 10th day of the last calendar month of the quarter:

- a) total quantity in metric tons of LPG imported and quarterly sales data
- b) -a copy of new agreements with depots owners, or
 - storage facilities, if applicable, or
 - proof of new ownership of bulk storage facility.

-Do not offer for sale to any person unless such a person is in possession of a valid LPG storage license issued by RURA or to a consumer for their own use.

-Take appropriate measure to avoid or minimize risks by using a structured program of risk management;

-Comply with any other obligations set by the Regulatory Authority.

N.B: This license is for 5 years renewable.