

Operating conditions for the radiocommunication license for Private Mobile Radios
(HF/VHF/UHF)

1. The station is placed under the authority of the Holder of the present License hereafter designated as « Licensee». The licensee is responsible for the usage of the station and breaches committed at this end.
2. The usage of this assignment is subject to its renewal and payment of annual charges as determined by the Ministerial Order in place. The application for renewal shall be submitted to the Regulatory Authority 45 days before the expiration of the current license. This license expires on 31st December of each year.
3. The usage of this assignment must adhere to the assigned frequency and the transmitting power.
4. The licensee must regularly review and adhere to the guidelines and directives provided by the Regulatory Authority regarding the usage of Private Mobile radios. While ensuring strict compliance with all existing laws and regulations.
5. The licensee shall ensure implementation of consumer protection measures to protect the rights of consumers and preserve their security and privacy.
6. The frequency (ies) utilized by the station have to be as stable and free of non-essential radiations as the technical capability allows it.
7. The Regulatory Authority does not hold any responsibility towards the exploitation of the private radio communication station.
8. The present license cannot be transferred to a third party and the assigned frequency may be changed upon common interest without compensation.
9. The licensee must report annually to the Regulatory Authority on the number of devices in position/use and whenever new devices arrive.
10. The licensee should request for license cancellation in case the service is no longer needed
11. This License should be presented upon request, by officials in charge of Monitoring and Control of the Private Mobile Radio Stations in the Regulatory Authority.